

Stats, Drugs and Rock & Roll

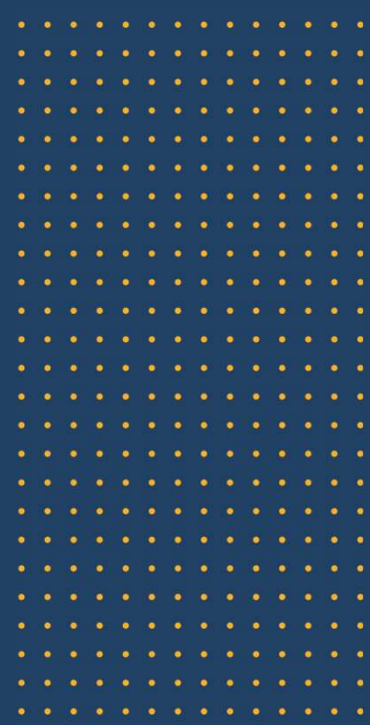

A Graduate's Perspective of the Industry

Patrik Atkinson, Veramed

19-JUN-2024

What did I need?

1. Learn how to have a job

1. Learn how to
have a job

2. Industry background knowledge

1. Learn how to
have a job

3. Industry
applied statistics

2. Industry
background
knowledge

What did I get?

1. Learn how to have a job

Soft skills training

Email and meeting etiquette, introductions to HR processes and IT systems

Mirroring colleagues

Apply judgement

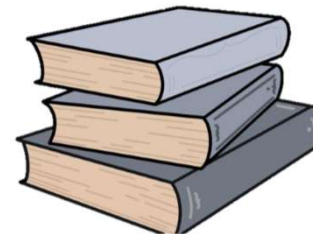

2. Industry Background Knowledge (IBK)

Regulatory authorities and guidance

Clinical documentation

Standard operating procedures

Industry standards

Job roles and responsibilities

Many many abbreviations

3. Industry Applied Statistics

4. Peer Support

What happened next?

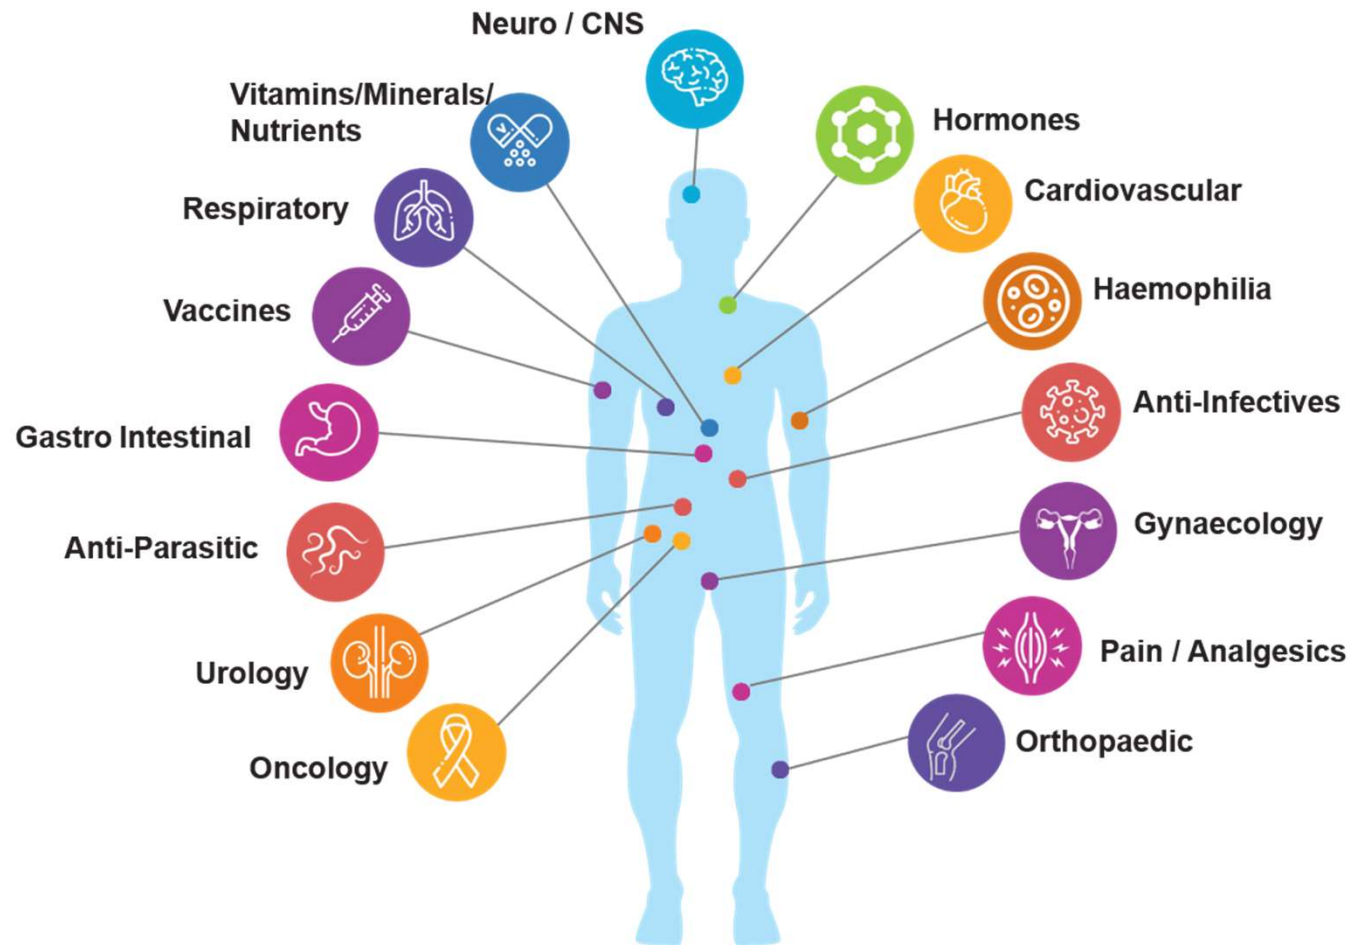

Phase III

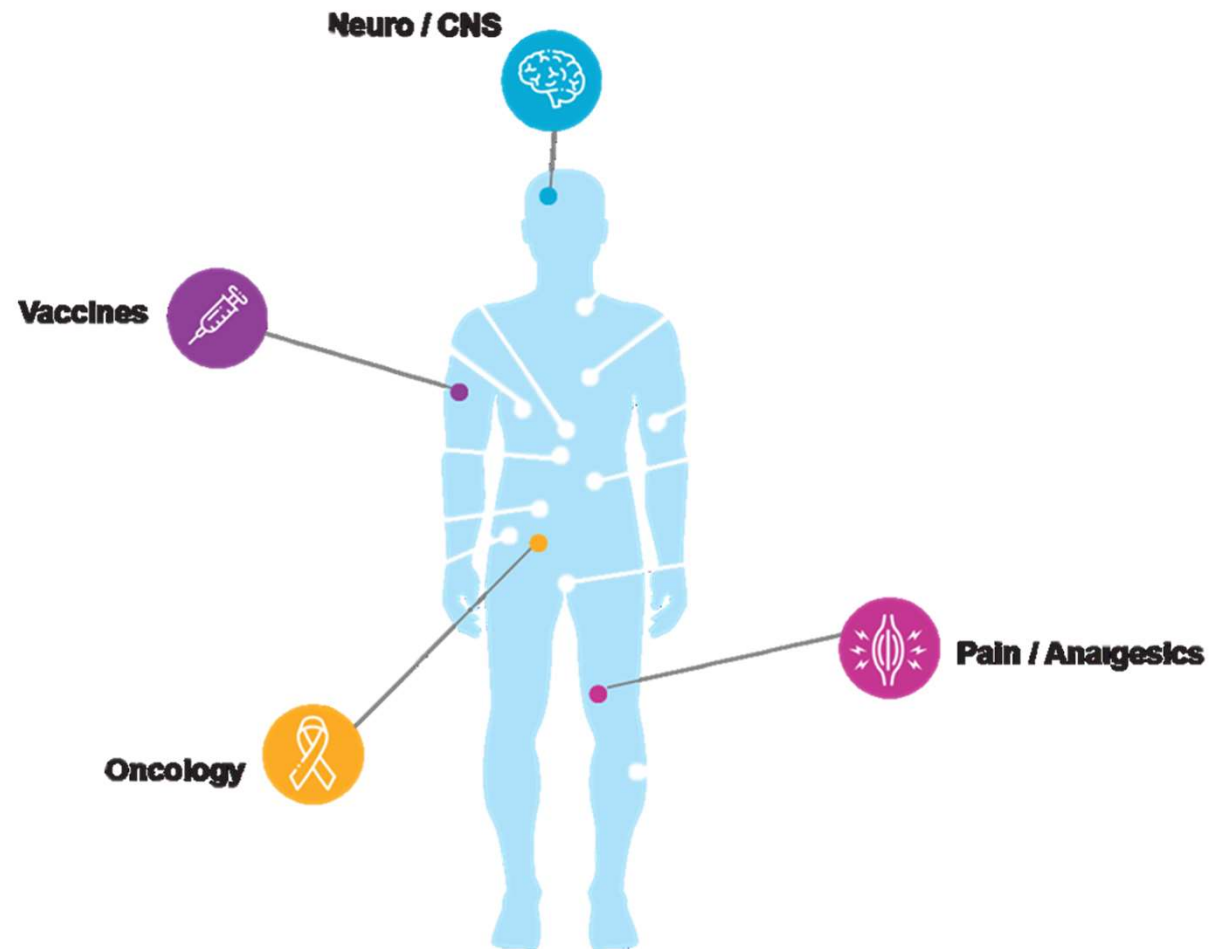

Phase II

Phase I

Past year study work

Past year study work

Challenges

1. Communication

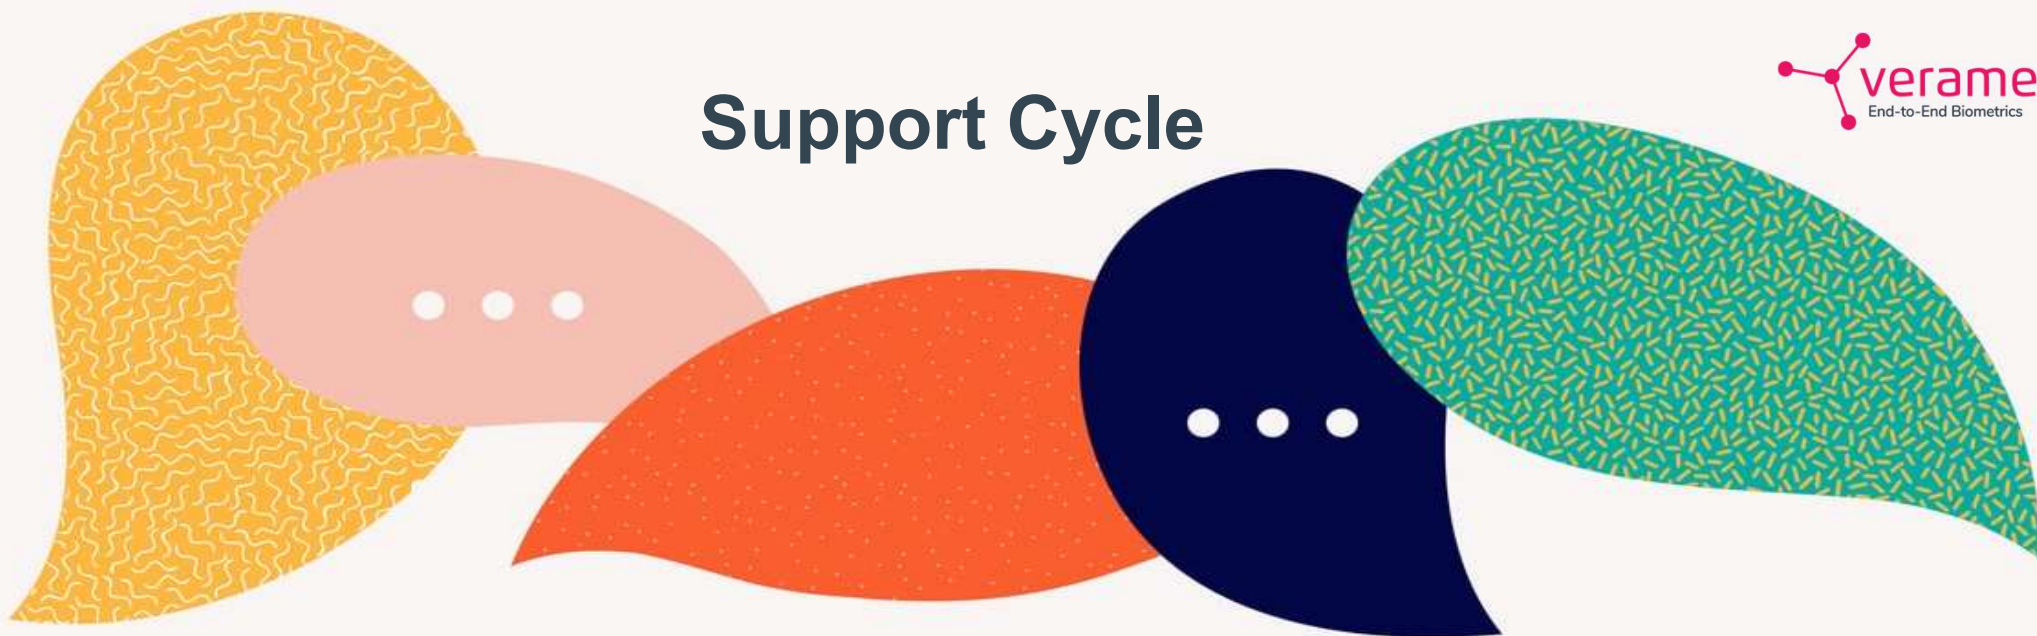

Clarify
interpretation

2. Balancing multiple tasks

Prioritisation and communication

Support Cycle

Takeaways

1.
Intimidatingly
large at first

2.
Training and support is crucial

3.
'Real-life' study work is a big step

4.
Be patient and supportive

*"If you try the best you can,
the best you can is good enough" – Radiohead
'Optimistic'*

Thank you!

GET IN TOUCH

patrik.atkinson@veramed.co.uk

Scan to connect on LinkedIn

